

December 9, 2008

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ARL takes center stage during the Toronto Motorcycle Supershow Atlantic Roadracing League to speak at the Toronto Motorcycle Supershow this weekend.

Halifax, N.S. – Atlantic Roadracing League (ARL) is pleased to announce it is speaking on stage during the Toronto Motorcycle Supershow in Toronto this weekend December 11th through to the 13th.

ARL will use this time introduce new class changes for the series, as well as announce the race schedule for motorcycle road racing at Atlantic Motorsport Park. ARL is working with various levels of government and tourism providers on new initiatives for the 2009 season.

Atlantic Roadracing League is excited to be working with the Toronto Motorcycle Supershow to officially kick-off the 2009 racing season in Atlantic Canada. A complete schedule of events and ticket information will be announced soon at www.atlanticroadracing.com. Inquiries can be directed to admin@atlanticroadracing.com.

Atlantic Roadracing League Inc is the promoter of all Atlantic motorcycle road racing action at Atlantic Motorsport Park. The Atlantic series consists of five rounds of racing that includes classes from Superbike to Vintage and everything in between. In addition to racing activities in 2009 ARL will promote High Performance Riding Schools, track days, along with "race focused" Peak performance schools. For information on these and other activities please go to www.atlanticroadracing.com.

-33-